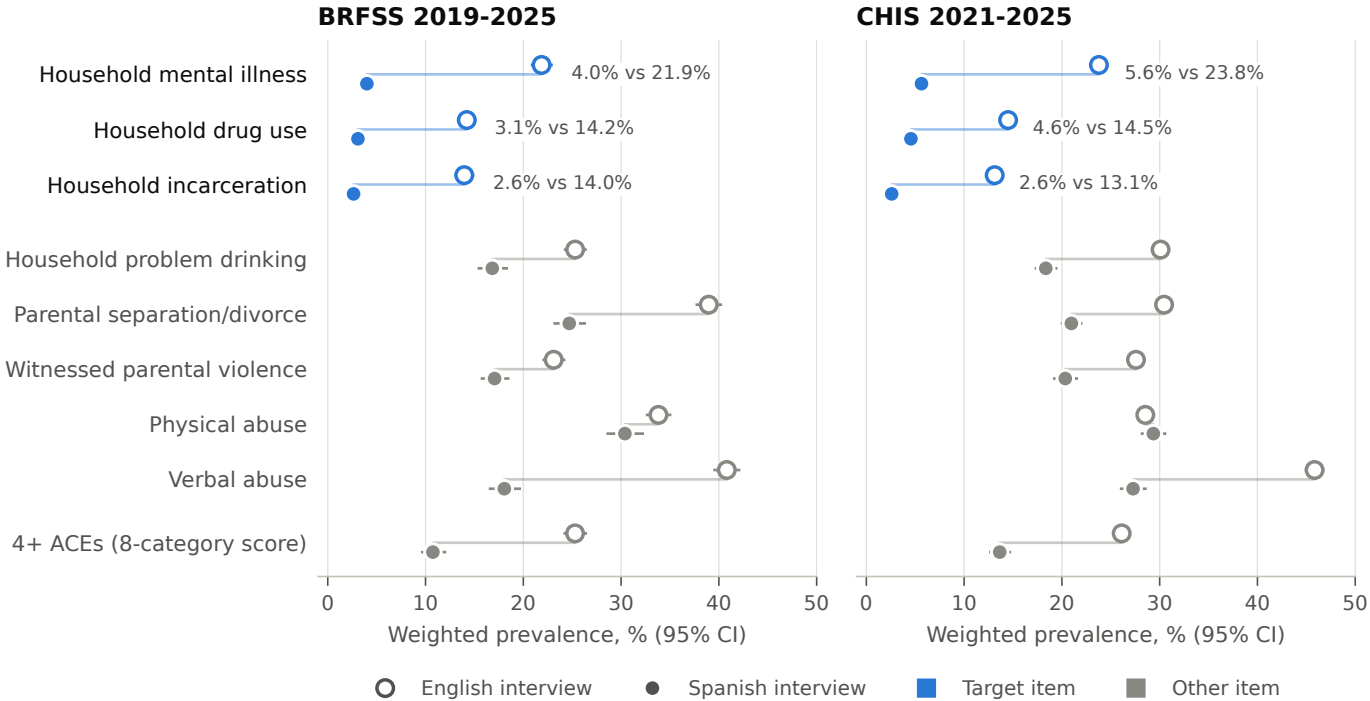
Spanish-interview respondents report the three target household items about one-fifth to one-third as often as English-interview respondents


Hispanic adults, weighted prevalence by interview language (95% CI). Blue = target items: household mental illness, drug use, incarceration. Labels: Spanish vs English.